

THREE DECISIONS RENDERED

JUDGE HOTCHKISS' JUDGMENTS IN COMMON PLEAS COURT.

Several Civil Cases Disposed of—Two Divorces Granted—Kate Flynn Found Guilty and Fined—Doings of the Day in the Other Courts.

In the common pleas court, civil side, yesterday afternoon Judge Hotchkiss handed down several decisions. In the suit brought by Allen Seaman of this city against Robert I. Robinson of Orange for an alleged debt Judge Hotchkiss rendered a decision for the plaintiff to recover $479.29.

John D. Chittenden of Guilford obtained a judgment of foreclosure for $233.60 against Charles A. Hall of this city and the time for redemption was fixed at the first Monday in August.

Judge Hotchkiss also handed down a decision in the suit of H. E. Hubbard of Meriden against Augusta P. Bates. The suit was for debt and a judgment of $195.27 was awarded the plaintiff.

In the common pleas court, criminal side, Kate Flynn of Meriden was found guilty of having kept a disorderly house on Pratt street, Meriden, and was fined $25 and costs by Judge Studley. Court then adjourned for the term.

In the superior court, civil side, yesterday Judge Prentice granted two divorces. Jennie Deming of this city was awarded a decree from Charles E. Deming, also of this city, on the grounds of habitual intemperance. The couple were married in September, 1885. Mary E. Dingwell of Meriden was also divorced from Edward E. Dingwell of Waterbury on the grounds of intemperance. The couple were married May 20, 1879, and separated two years ago. The custody of four minor children was awarded to the mother.

City Court—Criminal Side—Judge Cable.
Max Zenck, peddling without a license, nolle; Adolph Gosch, breach of the peace, $1 fine, $5.24 costs; Frank P. Ellis, embezzlement, continued until May 24; John Sullivan drunk, $5 fine, $7.06 costs, resisting officer, judgment suspended; Charles Harris, breach of the peace, $35 fine, three months in jail. It is probable that the suit of ex-Road Commissioner Thomas H. Sullivan against the Morning News for $10,000 damages for libel will be put on trial before Judge Prentice in the civil superior court next Tuesday afternoon. This suit was brought for alleged libel against Mr. Sullivan, who was a member of the so-called Big Four and concerns an article which appeared in the News alleged to be derogatory to the character of the plaintiff.

MISS PARDEE CAUSES A SENSATION.

Mr. Lothian had called a special rehearsal yesterday morning to perfect Mr. A. G. Hurlburt in the part of Baron Burgh, and also to give the entire company a final coaching before the performance at the Hyperion to-night. Miss Pardee had just finished her dance with Miss Ross at the end of the third act, when Jerry Green discovered in the wings a stuffed dummy of an Irishman of the most intense type. Seizing it in his arms, he walked behind it and as Miss Pardee turned she was confronted by an Irish gentry whose sawdust arm had encircled her waist. The company had had one experience at rehearsal, when Miss Ingersoll's monkey played with Mr. Lothian's hair, but the entire company agreed that the sawdust Beau Brummel had surpassed Miss Ingersoll's monkey's leap for life. Mr. Green has at various times caused mild sensations by his different antics. Seizing it in a long time it has been his intention to cause the dignified Sir John Hargrave to forget that he belongs to the nobility, and on the last night of the play succeeded in making Mr. Bryce skip a speech, but Mr. Bryce's professional experience on the stage, and what is professionally known as faking, saved him, so that the audience was none the wiser. The smoking scene in the third act has caused a great deal of amusement to those attending the rehearsals, as Mr. Bryce is constantly calling for the property man to furnish the cigarettes that Miss Pardee wastes in trying to learn how to smoke the "beastly things," he having to furnish the cigarettes, and not caring to be responsible for Miss Pardee's learning to smoke. The rehearsals are over, the play has had three performances, generous hands have been held out on all sides to give Miss Pardee a rousing welcome to-night at the Hyperion. Mr. G. B. Bunnell must certainly head the list as a special donor, but in doing what he has done he has lived up to the standard of the theatrical profession. There is no class of people on earth so generous and willing to help a sister or brother. Miss Pardee has made a sufficient success as an amateur actress to warrant her adopting the professional stage. Her success last Saturday night was artistic; now it remains to be seen if New Haven people desire to make it a financial success, and at the extremely low prices of 15, 25 and 50 cents they should not be a seat vacant in the Hyperion to-night. If such is the case it will inspire other authors, actors, etc., from New Haven to do their best work to make the city proud of its native talent.

Still at the Hospital.
August Weidmeyer, the fireman of Engine company No. 4, who shot himself in the head at his home on St. John street a few days ago, is still at the hospital. The doctors have thus far failed to extract one of the bullets in his scalp. He was a member of the Firemen's Mutual Aid association and such is entitled to $6 a week during disability which keeps him off duty.

Count Beloff Enjoined.
Attorney T. H. Russell, acting in his own behalf and also in that of Frank W. Pardee and other residents of Wooster place, has enjoined "Count" Beloff from fitting up the old Russell school building as a tenement house.

The injunction was issued by Judge F. Studley and no motion has yet been made to dissolve it, but probably it will be soon.

More Charges Will be Brought.
Danielsonville, May 17.—George H. Rice was today sentenced by Judge Burmay to four months in the Brookfield jail. At the expiration of this sentence other charges will be brought.

103RD ANNUAL MEETING

THE CONNECTICUT MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETING AT HARTFORD.

A Highly Interesting Program—Dr. James Campbell to Give a Reception to the Members of the Society and Delegates From Other State Societies—The Annual Dinner at the Hotel Hartford—Many Interesting Papers and Discussions.

The one hundred and third annual meeting of the Connecticut Medical Society will be held at Jewell hall, Y. M. C. A. building, Hartford, May 22 and 23. The following is the program:

The meeting of the president and fellows will be held at Jewell hall, Y. M. C. A. building, promptly at 2 p. m., Wednesday, May 22. The general order will be as follows:

Report of the committee on credentials.

Address to the Fellows by the president.

Announcement of committees.

Report of committee on unfinished business.

Report of treasurer.

Reports of special committees.

Introduction of new business.

Report of committee on county resolves.

Report of committee to nominate essayists on the progress of medicine and surgery.

Report of committee on business.

Reports of standing committees.

Report of nominating committee.

Election of officers, and delegates to other societies.

Report of committee on honorary members and degrees.

Report of auditing committee.

Miscellaneous business.

On Wednesday evening Dr. James Campbell will entertain the members of the society and the delegates from other state societies at his residence, 34 Congress avenue, from 8 to 11 o'clock.

THURSDAY.

The annual convention will meet at 9:30 o'clock at Jewell hall.

Order of Exercises.

Annual report of the secretary—N. E. Wordin of Bridgeport.

Reception of delegates from other state societies: From the Vermont State Medical Society—J. M. Clarke of Burlington, Lyman Rogers of Bennington.

Massachusetts Medical Society—T. P. Breck of Springfield, Albert Wood of Worcester.

Medical Society of New Jersey—J. A. Epton of Arlington.

Medical society of the state of New York—L. Duncan Bulkley of New York, Reynolds Webb Wilcox of New York.

Reports from delegates to other societies: To the American Medical Association, San Francisco, 1894—Gould A. Shelton, Joseph E. Root, Edwin B. Lyon.

Baltimore, 1895—Alva E. Abrams, Charles S. Rodman, Max Mailhouse, George R. Shepherd, Frederick Schavoor, Loren T. Day, Frederick M. Wilcox.

To the Maine State Medical Association—T. Morton Hills, Thomas M. Bull, M. V. B. Dunham.

To the New Hampshire Medical Association—Theodore R. Parker, Leonard B. Almy.

To the Vermont State Medical Society—George C. Bailey, O. J. D. Hughes.

To the Massachusetts Medical Society—Charles E. Brayton, Henry B. Plunkett.

To the New York State Medical Association—Edward H. Welch and Frederick S. Smith.

To the Medical Society of New Jersey—Max Mailhouse, Frederick B. Baker, William V. Wilson.

Report of the committee on matters of public interest in the state:

I. Typhoid fever—Irvine W. Lyon of Hartford.

Perforation in enteric fever; its surgical treatment—Frederick H. Wiggin of Litchfield.

Notes on an epidemic of typhoid fever in South Glastonbury—Charles G. Rankin.

The treatment of typhoid fever at the Hartford hospital—Joseph B. Hall of Hartford.

A brief history of serumtherapy—Arthur J. Wolf of Hartford.

II. The use of Diphtheria Anti-toxin in Connecticut—Irvine W. Lyon of Hartford.

Report on the progress of medicine—Elbridge W. Pierce of Meriden, Everett J. McKnight of Hartford.

Report on the progress of surgery—Charles C. Godfrey of Bridgeport, L. W. Bacon, Jr., of New Haven.

Dissertation: Senile cataract, one hundred cases. Comment—Frederick M. Wilson of Bridgeport.

At 12 m. the president's address, Medical Sociology. Adjournment to 1:30 p. m.

AFTERNOON.

The afternoon session will begin at 1:30 p. m.

Pneumonia and the treatment of its first stage by stimulation—William J. Trauer of Norwalk.

Tetanus—Edwin B. Lyon of New Britain.

The modern management of natural labor—Henry Fleischner of New Haven, Benjamin A. Cheney of New Haven.

Endometritis; its surgical treatment—Frederick Schavoor of Stamford.

The eye and diseases to which eye symptoms point—Arthur N. Alling of New Haven.

The errors of refraction found in 4,000 eyes—Harry S. Miles of Bridgeport.

Cerebral thrombosis—Gustavus Elliot of New Haven.

The morphine habit—John W. Wright of Bridgeport.

Simple meningitis—Max Mailhouse of New Haven.

Cerebro-spinal meningitis—N. Nickerson of Meriden.

Tubercular meningitis—Stephen J. Maher of New Haven.

A case of acute general millary tuberculosis, of so-called typhoid form. Autopsy—James M. Keniston of Middletown.

Modern improvements in treatment of diseases of the skin—R. A. McDowell of New Haven.

The localization of intestinal obstruction; illustrated by three cases—W. S. MacLaren of Litchfield.

Observations on operations for radical cure of hernia, with report of cases—George C. Jarvis of Hartford.

Observations on appendicitis, with report of operations—Charles E. Taft of Hartford.

The diagnosis and non-operative treatment of appendicitis—John F. Dowling of Enfield.

SPECIAL SUIT SALE!

$6.50

For an All Wool Suit that wears like iron and holds its color until it is worn out. At $9.00 these suits would be a big bargain. Our assortment comprises handsome Cassimeres, Worsteds, Black Cheviots and Blue Flannel.

AT $9.00

Is where we have outdone competition. Black Clay Diagonals, Blue and Black Serges, Gray Clays Handsome Silk Mixtures, all at $9.00 per suit. If you can duplicate them elsewhere at that price you can have ours for nothing.

FOR THE YOUNG MEN,

AGES 14 to 19 YEARS,

We have some of the greatest bargains ever seen:

Long Pants, 75c up.

Working Suits, $3.50 up.

All Wool Cheviots, $5.50.

Sunday Suits, $7.50, $8.50 and $10.00.

OAK

One-Price Clothiers,

49-51 Church Street, Near Crown Street.

HALL

OAK HALL'S GREAT OFFER

Is certainly without a peer or parallel in the history of the Clothing trade of New Haven. No better indorsement of these matchless $6.50, $7.50, $9.00 and $13.50 Men's Suits could be printed than the fact that every day hundreds of men who have heretofore paid from $15.00 to $25.00 for their Suits, and could easily afford to pay the same to-day, are purchasing these Suits now, simply because they think them fully as good or better than the more expensive ones they have worn before.

Everybody Surprised! Everybody Delighted!

The secret of this remarkable Suit selling is easily told. Last January, just as things commenced looking up, our wholesale house closed out the entire production of one of the most celebrated Woolen Mills and had them made up in our own shops. None but first-class trimmings, linings and findings were used, and none but first-class cutters and tailors did the work. Buying all our goods direct from the mill for Spot Cash and making them up ourselves, we are thus enabled to undersell all our competitors at least 25 per cent., which is the middleman profit and yet not be doing business for love.

OAK HALL, 49-51 Church Street.

$7.50

Buys an All Wool Suit in Black and Blue Cheviot, Blue Flannels, Black and Blue Serges, Dark and Light Mixtures in Fancy Cheviot and Cassimeres, single or double-breasted. To see them is to buy them.

$13.50

When it comes to a bang-up Dress Suit, our $13.50 Suits must take the lead. When we made these Suits up we expected to wholesale them at $13.50 to regular retail dealers, but decided to give our customers the benefit. Our assortment comprises neat, nobby Cheviots, Fine Hairline, Handsome Mixtures and Imported Worsteds.

In Our Children's Department

You will find many bargains.

Washable Suits, 49c, 75c and $1.00.

Sailor Suits, 90c, $1.25 and $1.50.

Kilt Suits, $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00.

Knee Pants, 10c up.

Knockabout Suits, 79c, $1.00, $1.25.

All Wool Suits, $1.50, $2.00, $3.00, $4.00.

OAK

One-Price Clothiers,

49-51 Church Street, Near Crown Street.

HALL

Dry Goods.

Wm. Frank & Co.

783 Chapel St.

Thursday Morning,

AT 10 O'CLOCK.

We shall place on sale in our Cloak department until Saturday night, unless they are sold out before,

Ladies' Capes for 98c.

These capes are Black, strictly all wool, and worth $2.75.

Also Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Special Reductions

On all high class Silk, Velvet and Cloth Capes and Ladies' and Children's Coats and Reefers.

Also for three days only

85 Ladies' Separate Skirts

of a very fine quality. All-Wool storm serge, lined throughout, regular $5.00 quality, at special, $3.50.

Percale Wrappers 79c.

Twenty-five dozen ladies' Percale Wrappers in handsome colorings of Pink, Light Blue and Lavender grounds with cord embroidered wide circular ruffle, Watteau back and extra large sleeves. Never sold under $1.00 before. While they last, 79 cents.

Thursday Only.

All Loomers Steam Moulded $1.00. Cutaway, Mode Bust or Empress Josephine Corsets, 85 cents.

Friday Only.

Colgate's Honey, Glycerine or Oat Meal Soap 5c cake.

Saturday until 4 p. m.

Ten per cent. discount on all Parasols, Sun and Rain Umbrellas.

WM. FRANK & CO., 781-783 Chapel street.

Sale of Miss A. V. Byrnes' Stock of Millinery

At 1132 CHAPEL STREET,

2d door above York.

The large and select stock of Millinery recently purchased in New York by Miss A. V. Byrnes will be sold regardless of cost by order of

THE ADMINISTRATRIX.

Mrs. Gamble will personally superintend all orders and will appreciate a call from her sister's friends and her own.

The Conn. Clothing Co.

A Nobby Suit!

Just received a fresh invoice of Men's Blue Worsteds Serge Sack Suits, all sizes, 34 to 44. These Suits were made to retail for $16.00, but owing to an over production by a certain Boston manufacturer, we were enabled to buy them at a figure which hardly represents the maker's cost.

These Suits are strictly all Worsteds, and are guaranteed fast color. The make and trimmings are first-class in every particular, and the fit and style are perfect.

We intend to give the public the benefit of this extraordinary purchase, and will sell them at the remarkably low price of $10.00 a Suit. $10.00 a Suit.

A greater bargain on a stylish, seasonable, honest and serviceable Suit was never offered in New Haven.

CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT.

SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY.

100 Styles Tan Colored D. B. Suits, always sold for $3.50, Saturday's price $2.00; ages 4 to 15.

Money back if you are not satisfied.

Connecticut Clothing Co.,

New Haven's Leading Clothiers,

813-815-817 Chapel Street.

New Haven, Conn.

SOL. MYERS, Manager.

WILLIAM H. CHAPMAN, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Solicitor of and Counselor in

PATENTS

OFFICES:

New Haven, Springfield,

70 CHURCH ST. 317 MAIN ST.

FORTY MILLION CAKES YEARLY.

THE PROCTOR & GAMBLE CO., CHICAGO.

Delicious

Food, crisp pastry, delicate cake, good digestion, all come with the use of Cottolene, and it saves money as well. Its wonderful success has brought numerous imitations. Genuine has trade mark—steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—take no other. Made only by

The N. K. Fairbank Company, CHICAGO, and Produce Exchange, N. Y., 224 State St., Boston.

NOTICE Johann Hoff has a suit pending against Tarrant & Co., to enjoin them from using the words "Hoff's Malt Extract" for an Extract bottled in their cellars in New York City.

Beware of imitations. Ask for the genuine JOHANN HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT

NORDICA

SAYS:

I HAVE used Johann Hoff's Malt Extract and find it most beneficial as well as agreeable. I would like to know your price per dozen bottles.

Litho Nordica

Beware of imitations. The genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract has this signature on neck label. EISENER & MENDELSON CO., Sole Agents, New York.

Johann Hoff

BICYCLE LEGGINS.

Many sorts of Ladies' and Misses' Bicycle Leggings are made specially for us and are not to be obtained elsewhere. We carry in stock Canvas and Leather in black and the different shades of tan, also novelties in Scotch Check, Momie Cloth and Linen.

FOR GENTLEMEN:

Canvas Anklets are light, cool and easily adjusted, and are the most practical short leggings yet brought out for bicycle riding or tramping.

Custom Department for Leggings and Overgaiters of Every Style.

The New Haven Shoe Company,

842-846 Chapel Street, New Haven, Conn.